Social Media Policy

1. Policy statement

- i. This policy is intended to help Councillors make appropriate decisions about the use of social media such as emails, blogs, wikis, social networking websites, podcasts, forums, message boards, or comments on web-articles, such as Twitter, Facebook, LinkedIn and other relevant social media websites. (Council staff have guidelines contained within the Employee Handbook).
- ii. This policy outlines the standards the Council requires Councillors to observe when using social media, the circumstances in which the Council will monitor the use of social media and the action to be taken in respect of breaches of this policy.
- iii. This policy supplements and should be read in conjunction with all other policies and procedures adopted by the Council, such as the Data Protection Policy, Disciplinary Procedure, Member's Code of Conduct and such like.
- iv. This policy does not form part of any contract of employment, and it may be amended at any time.

2. Who is covered by this policy?

- i. This policy covers all individuals working at all levels with the Council, including all elected and co-opted Councillors, volunteers (the Clerk to the Council and all other employees must comply with the Employee Handbook).

3. The scope of this policy

- i. The Council has overall responsibility for the effective operation of this policy. All Members are expected to comply with this policy at all times to protect the reputation, privacy, confidentiality, and interests of the Council, its services, employees, partners and community.
- ii. Behaviour required by the Members' Code of Conduct shall apply to online activity in the same way it does to other written or verbal communication. Members will bear in mind that inappropriate conduct can still attract adverse publicity, even where the Code does not apply. Online content should be objective, balanced, informative and accurate. Members must be aware that their profile as a Councillor means the more likely it is they will be seen as acting in an official capacity when blogging or networking.
It must be remembered that communications on the internet are permanent and public. When communicating in a 'private' group it should be ensured that the Council would be content with the statement should it be made public. Be honest and open but be mindful of the impact your contribution might make to people's perceptions of the council.

- iii. All employees, volunteers and members should ensure that they take the time to read and understand this policy. You are personally responsible for content you publish. Any breach should be reported to the Clerk.
- iv. Questions regarding the content or application of this policy should be directed to the Clerk.

4. Rules for using social media.

5. Monitoring use of social media websites.

You should be aware that any use of social media websites (whether or not accessed for Council purposes) may be monitored and, where breaches of this policy are found, action may be taken

Misuse of social media websites can, in certain circumstances, constitute a criminal offence or otherwise give risk to legal liability against you and the Council.
